

Indo-Japan Logistics Kaizen Convention

Rejoicing Kaizen ethos in Supply chain and Logistics

Recognition of organizations that have successfully implemented exemplary Logistics Kaizen processes.

Registrations to showcase Logistics Kaizen case studies are open and the applications can be sent using the enclosed form.

NO

Registration Fees

CII Institute of Logistics

日本ロジスティクス システム協会
JAPAN INSTITUTE OF LOGISTICS SYSTEMS

Key Takeaways

- ➔ Meet fellow Logistics Kaizen practitioners from Indian and Japanese companies.
- ➔ Learn about good Logistics Kaizen approaches.
- ➔ Understand benefits realized from Logistics Kaizen in business.
- ➔ Get ideas to overcome Logistics Kaizen implementation challenges.

Selection process and Key dates

Invitation for case studies in Logistics Kaizen from companies.

[Last date to receive applications in prescribed format : 31 January 2022]

Evaluation and feedback on case studies by CII evaluation group

Best 15 case studies will be invited for presentation at the convention to be held on 25 Feb 2022

2 to 4 case studies will be announced as best of the best-case studies of the year [25 Feb 2022]

Certificate and memento for companies announced as best of the best-case studies [25 Feb 2022]

For more details

Charles Arul Dawson
Deputy Director
charles.apk@cii.in 044-66360300

New Delhi

25 Feb 2022

The 1st edition of the "Indo-Japan Logistics Kaizen Convention 2022" is scheduled on 25 February 2022 in New Delhi. This Convention is an outcome of the ongoing Indo-Japan cooperation in Logistics Human Resources Development – the "Warehouse Kaizen Practitioner certification programme". The entire course emanated through direct transfer of knowledge from Japanese industry to Indian Industry.

The convention is an adapted version of Japanese system and encourages companies operating in India to showcase effective improvement projects. Organizations are invited to share their successfully implemented exemplary Logistics Kaizen processes. The details can be submitted using the enclosed application form.

Organizations selected on standardized evaluation criteria co-developed by JILS and CII-IL will be recognized with a memento at the Convention scheduled on 25 February 2022.